Under rule 10 B this league and the FA do not allow any child under 17 years old to play in 2 matches in one day this means if a child plays for even 5 minutes in a game somewhere then he/she must not go and play again somewhere else for another team that day, the 100 mins rule does not apply as people seem to think this is a totally different rule that applies to double header games between the same 2 teams if the league have got games back logged due to weather etc, and the 100 mins is the maximum for the older ages anyway, also if a child does not play the teamsheet must show DNP for that player if they have signed they will be deemed to have played no matter what the reason is under rule 11A,B & C these rules also requires a letter to come in if you mark the Referee 50 or below.The Mini soccer festival is mandatory for all u7's and u8's in this League.The League would also say how disappointed they are with teams/clubs who show total disrespect by not showing up to collect League trophies the opposition deserve better than that and also the League will fine these clubs for failing to deal with League business under rule 5 H and it really bad sportsmanship.Also girls cant play in mixed football after the u11's age .Halton School boys is active and they play on a Saturday so be careful of this rule and if they play for them or anyone they must not play again no matter what the length of time they played.Some teams are struggling to get enough to sign due to this schoolboys teams so please all think carefully about players playing these games.If a child is found to have played in more than one game the team/club will be disciplined and they will lose the game/points deducted.The dates are out for League meetings and cup dates are set and wont be changed for any reasons only by the owners of the venue.

10 A.O.B (Notification of which was made in writing at least 7 days prior to the meeting) Ian Perry weston Point wants to ask why we was not given the League medals a discussion was held which the floor was told 600 medals were not even picked up from best sports and the money that wastes a lot of money ,the floor was told to get some feedback and discuss at the next meeting

The meeting was declared over next meeting is August 9th 2010 8pm.
